

30 November 2007

E S H A 2008
Copenhagen, 11 - 13 September 2008
Theme: Conditions of School Leadership in Europe

Preliminary Programme

Wednesday, 10 September 2008:

From 18.00                      ESHA Board Meeting

Thursday, 11 September 2008:

All morning	Registration of delegates at the Falkonercentret – the venue for the Conference.
09.00-11.30	School visits – in 7 groups. 2 groups will visit a primary school in Hellerup. 3 groups will visit 3 vocational schools: Copenhagen Technical School, TEC, Frederiksberg and Copenhagen Hospitality and Restaurant School 2 groups will visit 2 gymnasiums: Ørestad Gymnasium and Nærum Gymnasium There will be a “guide” (a Principal/Inspector) in each of the buses. The theme of the visit will be explained in each bus – based on the thoughts behind “Conditions of School Leadership in Europe”. After the visit the buses will drive to:
11.30	Copenhagen City Hall where there will be a reception. From there by bus to Falkonercentret .
14.30	Welcome to the Conference – by Jørgen Christiansen, President of GYMLF. The choir from Skt. Annae Gymnasium Bertel Haarder, the Danish Minister of Education The President of ESHA
16.00	Coffee break – and exhibition.
16.45-17.45	Main Speaker 1: Barbara Ischinger, Director of Education, OECD (?) on the new OECD paper: “Improving leadership”.
Evening	optional: a visit to a local brewery – with meal

Friday, 12 September 2008:

09.15-12.00

Parallel sessions/workshops

The following sessions/workshops are being planned:

- 1) Ethics and school leadership – Lotte Nordstrøm, Sweden and Ole Corneliussen, Denmark.
- 2) The internet as educational material
- 3) OECD – a more thorough and in-depth view on their paper “Improving Leadership” (?)
- 4) PISA – experiences as seen from Finland (?)
- 5) delegation of leadership/LEAN leadership in public institutions (?)
- 6) a workshop arranged from Holland (?)
- 7) an IBM workshop (?)
- 8) Lars Qvortrup (?)
- 9) E-learning (?)

10.15-11.00

Coffee break – and exhibition.

12.00-13.30

Lunch – in the exhibition area.

13.30-15.30

Main Speaker 2:

A person from the Danish business/industry. Possibly Jørn Vig Knudstorp, Managing Director, LEGO. (?)

Main Speaker 3:

Leadership training – based on the experiences from England and their National College for School Leadership – Toby Salt, Strategic Director, NCSL.

15.30-16.15

Coffee break – and exhibition.

16.15-17.15

“Brains for Leadership” – a talk by Peter Lund Madsen, a Danish specialist on brains and the functions of the brain.

19.30

The ESHA dinner – at Paafuglen, TIVOLI.

Saturday, 13 September 2008:

09.30-10.30

Main Speaker 4:

Possibly a person from Lund University, Sweden, on the relations between PISA, Finland, and leadership.

10.30-11.30

Closing session

with a presentation of the venue for the next ESHA Conference 2010.